

"A BIRD IN THE HAND"

In Which Miss Dillpickles Relates How She Met the Bitter Problem of a Pet Flamingo.

"So I'm Taking Gertrude to Florida to Save Her Life."

BY FRED SCHAEFER

Reel IV.

My flamingo is ailing.

Yes, this is entirely too far north for Gertrude. She belongs to a more balmy latitude. She's developed a cough. I thought it was the pip, but a veterinary surgeon pronounces it bronchitis, with chance of involving the lungs of the poor thing and running into something fatal. No wonder this flamingo doesn't sing. The
